

DINAS POWYS INFANTS' SCHOOL

Nursery

The topic this half term is Jobs People Do. Here are some of the activities of this half term.

Language, Literacy and Communication Skills

People who help us:

- family
- community
- school
- Emergency services.

Class books.

Rhymes, poems, stories - fiction/non-fiction.

Small world play.

Role play: Police Station, Ambulance, Hospital, Fire Engine, Builder's Yard

Pencil control activities.

Jolly Phonics continues.

Listening to stories and songs on our storyphones.

Mathematical Development

Collecting data - People who help us and how.

Sorting/matching activities.

Number rhymes and games.

Number recognition and formation.

Counting out loud.

Mathematical story number cards.

Physical Development

Traffic lights - movement/colour.

Spatial awareness.

Travelling.

Small apparatus.

Circle games.

JOBS PEOPLE DO

Personal and Social Development

Helping and caring in the community.

Jobs and services they provide.

Children as helpers at home.

Creative

Making a 3D model town and rescue vehicles - recyclable modelling.

Painting techniques.

Printing.

Collage.

Displays - help in the community, emergency service, family, school.

Topical songs/rhymes.

Manipulative use of play dough.

Knowledge and Understanding of the World

Jobs and the services provided e.g. Nurse, Fire Service, Lollipop ladies, Dental nurse, Librarian, Police, Builder.

Remote control cars.

Computers/laptops/Interactive Whiteboard activities.

Road Safety.

999 Emergency services

Uniforms.

Welsh Language Development

Learning and responding to greetings and commands. Simple conversation patterns.

Songs and rhymes.

Counting.

Home Reading Library Day - Friday - please ensure you return your child's book weekly.